

More Analysis of Question 29

Question 29: Please indicate which of the following, or what combination, best describes your basic religious orientation. (If none seems adequate, add your own statement.)

- A) [13] Atheism or Non-theism: The concept of deity is not helpful.
- B) [16] Agnosticism: I simply do not know "the truth" about theological matters.
- C) [14] Liberal Christianity: I am inspired by Jesus' life and message of love to God and radical compassion for the outcast.
- D) [ 5] Progressive Judaism: The Hebrew prophets' demand for social justice and the wisdom of Jewish culture inform my religious life.
- E) [18] Buddhism and other Eastern Philosophies: Contemplative practice inspired by non-Western teachers provide me with inner grounding and a sense of peace.
- F) [15] Earth-Centered Traditions: Native American, eco-feminist and pagan celebrations of the seasons enable me to sense the sacred in nature.
- G) [29] Religious Humanism: The human mind and heart, and the strength we can offer one another, rather than traditional beliefs in God or prayer, are where I look for hope.
- H) [26] Naturalistic Theism: There is a creative mystery at work within the cosmos to which I feel connected as a part within a living, evolutionary whole.
- I) [ 4] Twelve Step: There is a higher power that I can rely on in times of difficulty and personal crisis.
- J) [14] Your Statement: ( not included in chart below )
